

SUMMER ART CAMP 2008

Myths & Legends

This summer art campers will learn about myths and legends from different cultures and will use these ancient stories as inspiration for their own artistic creations. This exciting summer will take your artist to near and faraway lands and imaginative places while exploring a mixture of fine arts and craft techniques.

Only $95.00 per week/per child!

Morning sessions: (9-12 am) for ages 5-8

Session 1: June 16 - 20

The Myths of the Nile and the Legends of the Pharaohs will be discovered while learning a variety of sculptural, drawing, and painting methods. Students will create a King Tut mask, miniature clay figures, a personal cartouche and more.

Session 2: June 23 – 27

Explore the Myths of the Grecian Gods and the Legends of the Ancient World while creating an amphora, a mosaic, and other art projects involving drawing, painting, and applied decorative arts.

Session 3: July 7 – 11

Discover the Myths and Legends of Florida's colorful history using sculpture, drawing, and painting. Students will explore the manatee and mermaid myth and the legends of the fierce Seminole warriors.
